Lover Lover, what's within you? Are you who you really are?
After all the games you've been through, who are you really living for?

Oh, it is all within you. You can be the sun.
Fire, splendor, rapture, flower drenched in morning rain,
Just be yourself. Lover Lover, be yourself. Be. Be.

Faith and strength will never enter a heart that sits upon the shelf.
Open your eyes and meet your Maker. It's none other than Yourself.

Oh, it is all within you. You can be the sun.
Fire, splendor, rapture, flower drenched in morning rain,
Just be yourself. Lover Lover, be yourself. Be. Be.

All you valued once is now dead. All your yesterdays are past.
Get a head start with a clear head. Make your mark, so it will last.

'Cause it is all within you. You can be the sun.
Fire, splendor, rapture, flower drenched in morning rain.
'Cause it is all within you, and the world will know.
Thunder, power, pleasure. All the pain will wash away. Just be yourself.
Lover Lover, be yourself. Lover Lover, be yourself.
Lover Lover, be yourself. Be. Be.
