I am in love. I am at peace. I am in light, may it never cease.
I am in God, God is myself. I am in love. There's nothing else.

I am in love, I am in grace. I feel the solace of this space.
I deeply gaze into my eyes. In love, I see my soul arise.

I am in love, I feel the power of soaring bird, of sentient flower.
To know the nurture of God's nest, in waves of love I have been blessed.

I'm washed in love, in ecstasy, calling me home eternally.
I am complete within my soul, yet still a piece of the infinite whole.

To laugh and dream with childlike joy, each moment seems a brand-new toy
My heart pours out its endless praise drifting in love for all my days.

I am in love. I am at peace. I am in light, may it never cease.
I am in God, God is myself. I am in love. There's nothing else.
