"She truly matches her name with her joyful exuberance and love of music ...
~ Annie Miller, Program Director, Eckerd College Elderhostel

Sisterhood of The New Jewish Congregation of Temple Shalom presents Joy Katzen-Guthrie in a concert of the music and the stories behind the music of the Hit Parade from the 30s through the 50s, Saturday, October 13th, 8-10 p.m. at Temple Shalom.

Everyone who had the privilege of attending your concert was enchanted. The stories, the memories, the insights into the music, together with your gifted renditions of the songs, made for an unforgettable afternoon. ~ Leah Ronen, Executive Director, Augusta Jewish Federation and Jewish Community Center

Joy Katzen-Guthrie is a gifted musician who will absolutely astound you with her talent. Listening to her perform and watching how she brings all the elements of music and voice together often leaves me breathless ... She puts an energy into her music that can't help but thrill those who are listening. She is a fantastic performer." ~Robert Moffa, Composer/Arranger and Founder, American Ideals Foundation, Inc.
