

THE PIVOT SONG

A bird is singing, chirping merrily
Though I've been crying, the song is calling me
Lift my mind, bird, with your lovely melody!
With your sweet spirit, I know I can be free!

CHORUS:

I choose to pivot from this pain,
Toss away the ball and chain,
Shift my focus and my brain in new directions.
I choose to pivot from what's wrong,
Turn something weak to something strong,
With joy to last my whole life long, starting now!

A breeze is blowing gently against my skin
Helping me realize the darkness I've been in
Open my eyes, breeze, how I want to see again!
I'm ready to feel good, let the happiness begin!

CHORUS:

I choose to pivot from my tears,
Dance away my dreary fears,
Spin about and switch my gears toward new connections.
I choose to pivot from no to yes,
Turn thought from failure to success,
Swivel around and feel the blessings growing now!

Anything can happen in the world that I create.
Instead of struggling, I can reverse the hands of fate.
Every moment is chance to celebrate!
And to be willing for life to turn out great!

*I'm amazed at the life that's mine!
A world of joy is the world I find.
Save me a spot on the conga line.*

CHORUS:

I choose to pivot from this pain,
Toss away the ball and chain,
Shift my focus and my brain in new directions.
I choose to pivot from what's wrong,
Turn something weak to something strong,
With joy to last my whole life long, starting now!

*Pivot, pivot from this pain
Toss away the ball and chain
Pivot to new directions.
Pivot pivot from what's wrong
From weak to something strong*

CHORUS:

I choose to pivot from my tears,
Dance away my dreary fears,
Spin about and switch my gears toward new connections.
I choose to pivot from no to yes,
Turn thought from failure to success,
Swivel around and feel the blessings growing now!

Swivel around and feel the blessings growing now!
With joy to last my whole life long,
Starting now!

*Pivot, pivot from my tears
Pivot from my fears
Pivot to new connections
Pivot pivot from no to yes
From failure to success
The blessings are growing now!*

*Pivot Around Pivot Around Pivot Around
Pivot Around Pivot Around Pivot Around
Starting now, Starting now!*
